

Hen Harrier Day Online 1 August 2021

Presented by David Lindo & Lauren Cook

Starts 10.00am

Welcome

- ✂ David and Lauren get us started.

Our hen harrier nest camera

- ✂ Andrea Goddard with the highs and lows of our adventure in live filming of the nest.

Young Wild Writer Competition

- ✂ Gill Lewis announces the winners, and Children's Laureate, Cressida Cowell, reads the overall winner.

Ghosts of the Landscape

- ✂ The missing wildlife of the Peak District – Derbyshire Wildlife Trust's new project.

The Tarras Valley Nature Reserve

- ✂ A short update on plans following the Langholm Moor community buyout.

Cruelty on the moors

- ✂ renowned young environmental activist, Holly Gillibrand, discovers the circle of destruction surrounding grouse moors.

Policing raptor persecution

- ✂ Jenny Shelton talks to Inspector Matt Hagen about some of the issues involved.

Protecting the birds

- ✂ The volunteer raptor monitors – Logan Steele in conversation with Andrea Hudspeth.

Draw their attention

- ✂ Draw a hen harrier and send to your elected representative. Our call to action.

Young Filmmaker Challenge

- ✂ We show the winner and runner up, with Lauren Cook (last year's winner) interviewing this year's, Esther Rumsey.

Skydancing

- ✂ A 'mindful' new composition by Chris Dowding before we go into our last section.

Kabir Kaul – young urban naturalist

- ✂ In conversation with David Lindo; about urban birding, rewilding; and hen harriers!

Rewilding – what, where and why?

- ✂ – and how it might look; Peter Cairns, Executive Director, SCOTLAND: The Big Picture.

The hen harrier observed

- ✂ We end with a beautiful reminder of our iconic bird of the uplands brought together by Jenny Shelton, with Tom Kane reading from James Macdonald Lockhart.